

I live in Indiana and STRONGLY oppose CBA members being allowed to solicit current customers via telephone. This is why we so overwhelmingly approved the creation of Indiana's telephone privacy laws to begin with. For once, I'd like the FCC to not automatically side with big business, and do the right thing. Do not weaken the Indiana telephone privacy law.